POTOMAC RIVER NAVAL COMMAND
U.S. Naval Gun Factory
Washington 25, D. C.

24 June 1946

NOTICE

The Commandant has recently extended the privileges of the OFFICERS' MESS to all Naval Officers and Marine Officers on active duty in the Bureaus, Boards and Offices of the Navy Department.

The OFFICERS' MESS of the Potomac River Command is located in Building 101, U. S. Naval Gun Factory, formerly the Navy Yard, Washington, D. C. It offers to its members and their guests a restaurant, a current fiction library, a game room, bowling alleys (now closed for the Summer), and a barber shop. The facilities of the Wine Mess are also offered to members.

A cafeteria luncheon is provided daily from 1130 to 1330. Dinner with service at individual tables is from 1730 to 2000. Special dinners are held every Sunday evening at the cost of $1.35 per person. Reservations must be made in advance for Sunday dinners or for special dinners. The Mess Treasurer, Lieutenant Commander J. C. Coleman, USNR, Franklin 5700, Ext. 2500, should be called to make all arrangements.

Moving pictures are shown daily in Building 218, Naval Gun Factory. The first show begins at 1730 and the second at 2000. On Saturday there is only one show at 1730.

Membership cards to the Mess may be obtained by applying personally to the Office of the Mess Treasurer.

W. L. Gates,
Captain, USNR,
Secretary, Advisory Board,
Officers' Mess.

DIST: All Branches & Sections, ONI.
